These notes are, outbreck, which would doubtless have otherwise May 30, and July 30, for Penang, Singapore as the Committee say, most desirable for the convenience of the community, if not absolutely necessary. The silver dollar is a cumbrous coin, and the practice of chopping renders it of uncertain value. Much more satisfactory is the dollar note, which is convenient to carry and handle and possesses a fixed purchasing power. The public therefore naturally most desirous that the issue should be continued. The only point on which any difference of opinion might arise is as to whether the notes should be issued by the Government or by the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, which has for many years past met the convenience of the public in this matter as far as the Government would allow it. The arguments on this question were fully reviewed in our issue of the 2nd instant. The Finance Committee arrive at practically the same conclusion as that come to by us then. They consider the issue of One Dollar Notes by the Government inadvisable under the conditions laid down by the Imperia Treasury, as the local Government could

The following appears in the San Francisco This unusually quiet village is to-day put on the pound, which will sweep away, the whole tocord for one of the most outrageous marders in the annals of crime, followed by the lynching of the perpetrator of the foul deed. Last night about eleven o'clock pistol shots were heard in the Gom Restaurant on Fourth-street. On investigating the cause of the disturbance it was found that a discharged Japanese waiter had entered the place and succeeded in getting into a dispute with the proprietiess. Mrs. Gulgell, over the hed bemislo ed doidw enoug errog fo possessor been left there by him. He first assaulted bidy in a violent manner. She endeavoured to gel out of the place into the street, and no sooner had she reached the door than the villainous wretch drow a bulldog revolver of medium calibre' and fired, the shot entering under the left shoulder blade, penetrating the lung. He followad her in firing until every chamber of the weepon had been emptied. The woman had only been able to run a few yards from her door, when the fell exhausted. LONDON, 5th May. The Times states that the deposits in the Oriental Bank were reduced a million and a half polow the total published in the last balance shoot (£6.696.938). It believes that creditors may expect seventeen shillings and sixpence in capital and reserve liability. A new Oriental Bank is projected, with a capital of two millions. It will take over the Bank's liquid assets.

BOWDAY, 5th May. The immediate effect of the failure of the Oriental Bank is almost insignificant. There were symptoms of a run on two of the local banks on Saturday, but the fears which prompted this were speedily allayed. On the share market the effect is scarcely perceptible. Native dealers in Bombay had withdrawn the bulk of their moneys, leaving only a small balance. The principal sufferors will be the proprietors of the Bank. Among the Bombay shareholders the majority are Parsees. The bulk of the shareholders in England show a large proportion of Angle-Indians and many military officers. The Bombay Gazelle to day gives a full list of the shareholders in England and India. Depositors are believed to be likely to receive payment in full. seems easy enough. In the Naval dockyards of Russia there is now said to be far more activity than for some time past. Six new war) issels are to be launched before the end of the approaching summer. Two of the number will be frigates, two cruisers, and two gunboats. The strategic railway line be- He tween Blaiystock and Baranovice, and that from A Homel to Lunienvice, which were both surveyed last autumn, are now to be constructed with all No possible despatch. Most of the work is to be W done by soldiers.

The Irish people are noted for their long funeral processions, but that of the late lamented Commander George W. De Long has distanced them all by many thousand miles, his remains being borne from Matveh by reindeer sled to Yakutsk, 800 miles; Yakutsk by horse sled to Irkatsk, 2,342 miles; Irkatsk by horse sled to F Krosnovarsk, 670 miles; Krosnovarsk by horse sled to Tomsk, 367 miles; Tomsk by horse sled to Sk Omsk, 582 miles Omsk by horse sled to N Orenburg, 1,000 miles; Orenburg by railroad to Moscow, about 900 miles; Moscow by railroad to Hamburg, 1,300 miles; Hamburg to New York, about 3,000. Total 10,981 miles. It may seem a little incredible, to say that a purson eighty years of age has just cut a second tooth after having lost all her first set, but such is the case. Mrs. Genevieve Hummel, a widow, who lives with her son, Frank Hummel, a mile and a half southeast of Jeffriesburg, is about eighty years of age. Two years ago she cut a tooth, but it was soon lost and she did not know when it disappeared. Last week she cut another tooth, and it is growing and doing good service now. She has her second eye sight and reads readily without glasses. Second eye-sight is not an uncommon thing, but the cutting of teeth a second time is something we have salden heard of .- Washington, Mo., Observer For years there has stood at the corner of Twelfth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, an old woman, who sold flowers. On the 24th April it was discovered that she is one of the heire of a vast estate left by John Nicholas Emerick, who died without making a will, about 135 years ago. When he died his estate was valued at $5,000,000. Now it is worth fully $20,000,000, part of which is in England, the rest being in Germany and Now York She says that her husband was a grandson of Nionoms Emerick. Several mins to this estate have appeared in the past, but they failed to produce the requisite proof of identity. Mr. Emerick has placed a bundle of papers in the hands of her counsel and says that they will fully establish her claim. WHAT IS LOVE! (Translated from the German by S. GALE.) Of thy deep feelings, oh! my heart! I fain would auastion thee.

Know'st thou this secret?: What is Love? Ah! then reveal it me. " It is two souls fast united, Bound by a magic spell—

It is two hearts only benting Each thought, each wish to tell. Then whom is Love the parest? Say, is that moment known?

"Yes, whon it quite forgets itself And loves for Love alone!! Canst tell when 't is the deepest? Is 't when both hearts are glad? "No; when they 're still and silent

And others think them sad." Once more—when is 't the richest? When on bright hopes it lives? No: when it offers everything-"I is richest when it gives!"

When does it fade !-- for all things fade! When the spell is sunpt and gone? "Never, indeed | though hearts may break, Love fades not .- but loves on!" $m{Public~Opinion.}$

A TURKISH PARABLE. A traveller who spentsometime in Turkey, clates a beautiful parable told him by dervish, and which seemed more beautiful A than Sterne's celebrated figure of the accusing spirit and recording angel: "Every man," said the dervish, " has two angels, one on his right shoulder and one on his left. When he does anything good, the angel on his right aboulder writes it down and seals it, because what has been done well has been | 3-A21367 done for ever. When he does evil, the ange on the left writes it down, and he waits till midnight. If before that time the man Allah! I have sinned; forgive me! the angel rube out the record; but if not, at midnight he seals it, and the beloved angel felt on the right shoulder weeps."-Household
